

Bangalore Mediation Centre has 65% success rate in settling disputes

P Vasanth Kumar | TNN | Updated: Nov 6, 2015, 19:52 IST

BENGALURU: The Bangalore Mediation Centre — an initiative of the Karnataka high court — has so far mediated 37,230 cases. Out of these, 24,092 cases are settled with a healthy overall success date of 65%.

According to M Chandrashekar Reddy, director BMC, 16,600 matrimonial cases out of 20,384 mediated were settled during January 1, 2007 to October 31, 2015.

In addition, 4,107 suits out of 7,568 original suits mediated and 5,055 connected cases have also been settled, he said.

Interestingly, 65 couples have also been reunited in the matrimonial cases that were mediated during January-October 2015 period.

The BMC now boasts more than 70 trained mediators and master trainers and trainers of BMC have so far conducted various training programmes and have trained the advocates as mediators not only in Karnataka, but also across the country.
